

Kids Christmas Craft

Contributed by Administrator
Monday, 18 August 2008

Incorporating your kids or the kids in your class in making kids christmas crafts is special and should be done with great enthusiasm. Listed below are several of our choice selections from the web when it comes to great kids christmas craft making plans. Good luck and happy holidays!

Pen holder collage

Give someone a great personalized gift with this Pen holder collage. This scrapbooking craft is fun and creative way to recycle old magazines and newspapers too. Pen holders are easy and allow your kids to funnel their artistic visions for the holidays. EASY

Christmas Hair Clips

Stay stylish this holiday season with these Christmas hair clips. A dash of glitter and miniature Christmas lights make this a sparkling craft for fashionable young crafters. Young girls especially already have glitter and stickers in their rooms. A cheap, yet fun way to make a young kids christmas craft come to life!

Bead and Button Teacup

Give someone an unusual gift with this bead and button teacup. It's a great craft activity for kids who enjoy decorating things with fashion accessories. Simply scavenge your own sewing kit for unused buttons, glitter, ribbon and tack-ons for a great way to dress up low cost teacups.

Baby Food Jar Christmas Tree

Create a radiant decoration for your window by crafting this baby food jar Christmas tree. It makes a glowing multicolor display that will look both inviting and fun to passersby or arriving holiday guests. The best part of this xmas craft is the low cost of baby food jars. Kids will take to the creation of miniature christmas trees with cute baby labels!

Santa Suit for Bean Bag Animals

Get your Beanies into the Christmas spirit with this Santa suit for bean bag animals. It takes a bit of work but kids will love to see their stuffed toys dressed up, especially for Christmas. Draw on old fabric, stitching, buttons and velcro to make this christmas craft a fun one.